- Buyer must meet the income qualification criteria for a moderate-income household under the California Health and Safety Code Section 50105, 50079.5 and 50093.

- During the restriction period, Buyer will not rent or lease the home for any reason.
- Buyer will be responsible for repaying the mortgage loan and will make all payments on time and to keep the home lien-free, or the Authority will have the right to repurchase or foreclose on the home under the promissory note, deed of trust, and affordable housing agreement.
- Buyer will not encumber, mortgage, or allow the imposition of liens on the home without the prior, express written permission of the Authority.
- Buyer is precluded from selling the home to any person other than a moderate-income qualified buyer during the restriction period (45 years – August 2052).
- The resale price to another income-qualified buyer will be restricted to a monthly affordable housing cost determined under the promissory note, deed of trust, and affordable housing agreement.

¹ 2024 Income Limits will be utilized until the 2025 Income Limits are released by the State of California Department of Housing and Community Development.

- The principal and interest payments are deferred. They shall be forgiven as long as the unit remains affordable to a moderate-income household for the term of the existing Authority loan.
- Buyer is at least 55 years of age or older, and any person who will live reside at the Property will qualify as either a “Qualified Permanent Resident” or a “Permitted Health Care Resident” (as those terms are defined in Civil Code Sections 51.3(b)(3) and 51.3(b)(7)).
- Buyer’s monthly payments for housing expenses (principal, interest, taxes, insurance, mortgage insurance, if applicable, $239.20 HOA dues (HOA DUES WILL INCREASE TO $304,20 ON APRIL 1, 2025) and $75 utility allowance) may not be less than 28% of buyer’s gross income nor more than 35% times 110% of the Riverside County median, as more specifically defined by Health and Safety Code Section 50052.5 and the Affordable Housing Cost Worksheet available from Authority. This unit’s maximum monthly housing expenses cannot exceed $2,815 for a unit of this size.
- The Authority will agree to subordinate to a refinancing of the first mortgage loan only under the provisions of the Authority loan with the following limitations:
 1. for not more than the then-current first mortgage loan balance (i.e., a straight refi to reduce your interest rate) or
 2. for a “cash-out” refinance where the new first loan does not exceed the lesser of (1) the total of the new first mortgage plus the Authority loan up to seventy percent (70%) of the current appraised value of the property; (2) a mortgage amount that does not exceed a monthly affordable housing cost; or (3) an amount equal to the first mortgage balance plus closing costs plus $25,000.
 3. The La Quinta Redevelopment Authority loan MUST remain in second position. Interest-only, variable-interest loans, Home Equity Lines of Credit (HELOC), and Reverse Mortgages are not allowed under this program.
- If an owner pays off the Authority loan during the 45-year (August 2052), the affordability covenants remain with the property for the entire term, requiring it to be sold to an income-qualified household and with a limitation on the resale price.
